Here's a shopping guide you'll find handy in planning family dinners for 12 to 25 people. For hearty eaters, better increase the amounts slightly - - to allow for second helpings. If serving more than one meat, this too, must be accounted for when planning the amount to buy.

ROAST TURKEY - Allow ½ to ¾ lb. ready - to- cook weight per serving. For 12 persons buy a 10 to 12 lb. turkey (ready-to-cook weight). For 25, get a 16 to 21 lb. turkey.

HAM [Uncooked]: Allow ½ to ¾ lb. per serving. For 12 people get 6½ to 9 lbs. bone-in, or 4½ to 5 lbs. boneless ham. For 25 people, allow 12 to 18 lbs. bone-in, or 8 to 9 lbs. boneless.

STANDING RIB ROAST [Beef]: Allow ½ to ⅔ lb. bone-in roast per serving. For 12, 6 lbs. ; 10 lbs. (7 ribs) for 25.

MASHED POTATOES: For 12, 3 to 4 lbs.; you'll need 7½ lbs. for 25 people.

SWEET POTATOES OR YAMNS: (candied) For 12, 4 lbs. or 3 No. 2 cans. For 25, allow 9 to 10 lbs. or 6 No. 2 cans.

PEAS: For 12, three 12-oz packages, frozen or 3 No. 303 cans. Get 5 12 oz. packages frozen, or 6 No. 303 cans for 25.

PUMPKIN OR MINCE-MEAT PIE: For 12, two 9" pies, For 25, five 8" pies.

COFFEE: Regular grind: for 12, 1½ cup: for 25, ¾ lb. Instant Coffee: for 12, ½ cup; for 25, one 2-oz. jar.

RECIPE OF THE WEEK

Miss White's 4-H Class

Friday, November 15, 1974, was 4-H day for Miss White's class.

Our president Richard Guill opened our meeting by having Mike Shupe and Connie Tolley lead us in the 4-H pledge and the pledge to the American Flag.

Then our recreation leaders, Terri Robinson, Mary Hudson, and Tony Webb led us in these songs, "The More We Get Together" and "The Noble Duke of York."

Mrs. Walton showed us how to make junk into Christmas treasures. Medicine bottles were made to be vases and buttons and wire were made to be flowers in the vases. Mustard candles and flower pots were made. Saucers were made to be candle holders. Card holders, Christmas tree ornaments of milk weed pods, lids and plastic containers were part of the treasures.

Cadet Attends Conference

WEST POINT, N.Y. Nov. 18 - Mike Belter of the U.S. Military Academy attended the 26th annual Student Conference on United States Affairs conducted at the United States Military Academy last week.

More than 200 students from nearly 100 colleges participated in three days of student discussion groups highlighted by addresses and panels.

The keynote address was delivered by Professor Richard N. Gardner, of Columbia University, presently a consultant to the United Nations Environmental Program.

Sponsors and speakers in the past have included such dignitaries as Dr. Henry Kissinger, General Maxwell Taylor, Professor Hans Morgantnau, and Gov. Nelson Rockefeller.

The objective of SCUSA is to gather together future military and civilian leaders for an examination and discussion of selective aspects of American foreign policy without the restraints of formal debate. SCUSA attempts to develop in its participants an appreciation of the complex nature of the policy-making process.

The topic of this year's conference was - "The Realities of Global Interdependence."

Belter is the son of Mrs. Frank Carwile of Appomattox.

PES — PTA Honors Mr. Beale

Mr. Beale (top picture) was awarded a certificate from Lakeside Insurance Company by Mr. Paulette. Mrs. Mary Beth Morris (bottom picture) PTA president, presented Mr. Beale with an engraved silver revere bowl in appreciation for many years of service to the community.

The Pamplin Elementary School PTA honored Mr. R. C. Beale at their November meeting for forty-four years of service to the county as a school bus driver. This number of years of safely transporting children to school has set a record according to Mr. E. A. Paulette, Transportation Supervisor, and Mr. E. Perry, of the Automative Club of Virginia.

Mr. Perry, guest speaker, reminded adults of ways they can contribute to the safety habits of children and made suggestions to parents about getting their children to and from school safely.

Modernistic Club News

Regular preaching service will be held at First Baptist Church at the 11: o'clock hour Sun., Nov. 24. Dr. Ward Davis was in place with a fine message for those who attended the morning worship. Theme for discussion - "Considering the Goodness of God." The message was in keeping with the aproaching Thanksgiving period. The Rev. Davis gave a number of ways to be thanks to God, for His loving kindness and tender mercies toward each us. The sermon was very helpful and inspiring to all present.

Special music was rendered by the church choir under the direction of Sister H. P. James. The very liberal offering was given in appreciative number to the present. There were some visitors in the audience. A welcome was extended to all by Pastor Davis.

Regular services were held at Promise Land Baptist Church Sunday at the 11: a.m. hour. The Rev. R. Q. Lawing, Pastor, was in charge of the hour. We trust that the services were well attended, successful as usual. Music was furnished by the Senior Choir under the direction of Miss Ann Fleshman.

Sunday p.m., at Pineview Baptist Home in Spout Spring, the Rev. R. Q. Lawing was in charge of the annual service held there at the home. We do hope that all who attended enjoyed the services. Music was rendered by Mt. Shiloh Baptist Choir. Mr. and Mrs. Tyler are owners, and operate the Pineview Rest Home.

At 2: p.m. Springfield Baptist Church, a large number turned out to a choir feast, sponsored by the Junior Choir of the church. Those who attended the program gave an account of a great time. The program was very successful, both spiritual and financial.

The Gospel Four and Soul Searchers of Appomattox, took an active part on the program at Springfield Baptist Church Sunday, at 2 p.m. A number of Junior Choirs participated on the program.

The Rev. R. Q. Lawing and a part of his family will journey to Philadelphia, Pa., where Rev. Lawing will be the guest speaker Sunday, Dec. 1, 1974, at Trinity Baptist Church. The Rev. Cecil Gallop, a close relative of Mrs. Florence Lawing is the pastor of the church. We trust that the Rev. Lawing and those who accompany him, will have a delightful time in the great "City of Brotherly Love," Philadelphia, Pa.

We invite members and friends to worship at Galilee Baptist Church Sun., Dec. 1, 1974 at the 11: a.m. service hour.

Church School will be held at the 10: a.m. hour. Supt. J. A. Watson will be on hand to welcome one and all.

The community is sending up special prayers for the sick here and elsewhere. The community hopes that the following who are patients in Lynchburg Marshall Lodge Hospital may soon return to their love ones: Mrs. Louise Watson and Mr. James Reed.

The church and community are sending up prayers for Mrs. Lora Stevens, who jou...eyed to Baltimore, Md. with her son James and is a patient in a hospital there. We are hoping all the sick and shut ins may soon return home to their relatives and friends.

In and out of Town
